Weddings

Worworing's Georgian style homestead and formal gardens provide an ideal setting for an elegant garden wedding. Couples may choose a marquee in the garden or at one of the many picturesque locations on the estate.

'The Shed' at Worworing was originally a stable complex and has been recently renovated for wedding receptions and events. The venue overlooks a private lake, rolling pastures and is surrounded by natural bushland. The Shed is a versatile space which can cater for large or intimate occasions.

Accommodation

Worworing can accommodate up to 40 people in the uniquely appointed houses, cottages, huts and boatsheds on the property. Additional guests can stay at beach properties situated nearby at Jervis Bay.
